Student Finance Explained

- University students can receive two different loans from Student Finance England- the tuition fee loan and the maintenance loan.
- The tuition fee loan covers the tuition cost of going to university. This is currently set at £9250.
- The maintenance loan contributes to day to day living costs a student has whilst studying. E.g accommodation, food, transport etc

Student Finance Explained

- The maintenance loan is means tested based on the household income of the residence where the student lives.
- Student Finance England have a maintenance loan calculator that provides the best estimate of how much maintenance a student will receive.
